Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

ARTICLE II

AMENDMENT, REVOCATION AND INCAPACITY

A. At any time or times during the lifetime of either of the Settlers when competent, they shall have the right and power to amend or revoke this Declaration of Trust, in whole or in part, by delivery of a written instrument to the then acting Trustee. If both or either of the Settlers shall revoke this Declaration of Trust in whole or in part, all assets of the Trust Estate made subject to the revocation shall be delivered to the Settlers. Section 164.502(g) (5) (ii).

D. This instrument shall become irrevocable upon the death of both Settlers.

E. Grantors reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed into this trust as Grantor's permanent residence during Grantor's lifetime, it being the intent of this provision to preserve in Grantor the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property, to comply with Section 196.0321 of the Florida Statutes, such that Grantor's possessory right constitutes in all respects, "equitable title to real estate", as that term is used in Section 6, Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding anything contained in this trust agreement to the contrary, the interest of Grantor in any real property on which the Grantors reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest

I direct that no bond be required of the Trustees herein named.

ARTICLE IX

POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

As to the Trustees, including any successor Trustee, we provide as follows:

A. Trustee has the duty of administering the Trust Estate in accordance with the terms of this instrument and all consistent trust law of general applicability and in a manner which in his opinion is in the best interests of the Trust Estate and of its beneficiaries. The discretionary and ministerial powers of Trustee are exercisable only in a fiduciary capacity. Subject to other provisions of this instrument, these powers are intended to be broadly construed to permit Trustee to act in a manner he deems to be in the best interest of the Trust Estate or of its beneficiaries. No statute with respect to under productive property shall apply to this Trust.

B. Trustees and their successors shall be permitted to qualify and serve in any jurisdiction without giving bond or other security and shall be excused from making accountings or other reports to any court.

C. Upon request, Trustee shall render an annual statement of the receipts and disbursements of the income and principal of the Trust and the condition of the Trust Estate to each beneficiary.

D. No person transacting business with Trustee in connection with the purchase or sale of securities or other property, the sale or lease of real property, the borrowing or lending of money, the making of any other contract or the voting of shares of stock shall be required to inquire into Trustee's capacity or authority to act or to see to the application or disposition of any money or other property paid, loaned or delivered to Trustee.

E. Under this agreement, Trustee will be chargeable only for the monies, stocks, property, funds, shares and securities which said trustee actually receives, notwithstanding Trustee's having signed any receipt for the sake of conformity. Trustee shall be answerable and accountable only for his or her own acts, receipts, negligence and defaults and not for those of any other person for whom or into whose hands any trust property monies or securities may be deposited, nor shall he or she be liable for the insufficiency or deficiency of any stocks, funds, property, shares or securities, nor for any other loss, unless it shall have occurred through his/her own willful default.

F. Trustee may resign by giving proper notice to the beneficiaries of this Trust. He/she shall give reasonable notice of his or her resignation in order to allow time for the designation of a successor (if one is not named) and he/she shall account to the Successor Trustee.

G. In case there is at any time a vacancy in a position held by the named Trustee or Successor Trustee under this Agreement as hereinabove provided for because of the ineligibility of Trustee or for any other reason except where otherwise provided, then in such event a Successor shall be appointed by a majority vote of the income beneficiaries. Any minor beneficiary entitled to vote under this paragraph shall be represented by his or her parent or, if both parents are dead, by that beneficiary's duly appointed guardian.

H. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any political, social or economic conditions or changes in the laws of taxation arise which in the opinion of Trustee make it advisable and in the best interest of the beneficiaries that this Trust or any share hereunder be entirely terminated or if at any time the principal of any trust or share created hereunder is too small to justify the continuation of the Trust, then Trustee(s) may terminate the Trust or share and distribute the principal thereof and any accumulated income thereon to the beneficiary or beneficiaries for whose benefit it is held.

I. In addition to the powers, privileges and immunities conferred upon the Trustees by Chapter 518, 737 and 738 of the Florida Statutes, and the decisional law of the State of Florida, the Trustees have the power and authority with respect to the Trusts created herein and their assets:

1. To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of any corporate Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or non-productivity, as long as he/she deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although said property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

2. To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interest in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes (secured or unsecured), stocks of corporations regardless of class, shares of limited liability companies, interests in limited partnerships, real estate or any interest in real estate (whether or not productive at the time of investment), interest in trusts, investment trusts (whether of the open and/or closed fund types and participation in common), collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

3. To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or upon credit, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as he/she may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

4. To hold any securities or other property in his/her own name as Trustee, in their own names, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

5. To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such reasonable period or periods of time as she may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

6. To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

7. To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock owned by the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust.

8. To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as he/she may deem advisable in connection therewith.

9. To borrow money and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustees.

10. To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust.

11. To subdivide, develop or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration.

12. To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raise existing or erect new party walls or building.

13. To continue and operate any business owned by me at my death and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business, for such time as they shall deem advisable, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business, except for their own negligence; and to close out, liquidate or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as he/she shall deem best.

14. To collect, receive and receipt of rents, issues, profits and income of the Trust Estate.

15. To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and the Trustees against liability with respect to third persons.

16. In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with themselves in their separate, or any fiduciary, capacities.

17. To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against and Estate as the Trustee shall deem best.

18. To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisors, brokers, appraisers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct or default of any such agent or professional representative provided he or she was selected and retained with reasonable care.

19. To determine, irrespective of statute or rule of law, what shall be fairly and equitably charges or credited to income and what to principal notwithstanding any determination by the court or by any custom or statute, and whether or not to establish depreciation reserves.

20. To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate

undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

21. To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value.

22. In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own rights, upon such terms and conditions as he or she may deem best, and to do all acts which he/she may deem necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust.

23. To purchase property, real or personal, from the Estate of the Settlers upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as my Personal Representatives and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased in the Trust, although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment, except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Personal Representative and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

24. To lend funds to Settlor's Estate upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities and security as the Personal Representative and the Trustee shall agree. The fact that the Personal Representative and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.
